Describe How the Program Supports Family Connections

Brooklawn actively works to involve families in the treatment planning process by involving them in treatment planning and offering family therapy sessions on a flexible schedule that includes nights and weekends. Brooklawn also offers transportation assistance in the form of gas card vouchers. Families who are having financial difficulties or who travel a great distance can receive gas cards to promote their participation in family therapy sessions. Brooklawn also provides weekly visitation three days a week. Families are involved in any significant incidents that occur with their child through a notification and debriefing process. Each child at Brooklawn is also actively working on a life book that promotes and/or supports their connections to their families.
